Dear Mr & Mrs Weisberg,

I wanted to write a short letter to touch base with you again and make sure there wasn't any problem with my son and I coming to look at your files.

To refresh your memory I wrote you a couple of months ago and asked if my son and I could look at your files. You graciously replied we could.

My son and I have tickets so that we will arrive the evening of Jan 11. We would be available Jan 12, 13 & 14 to visit you. As I stated previously I don't want to put you under any obligation. We feel fortunate that you would consider letting us review the files. We would like to visit one or all of the three days noted. We also understand your situation could change even at the last minute, so please don't feel like you are locked into any obligation.

I've enclosed a S.A.S.E. if you wish to drop me a line. In any case I will call shortly before we come to confirm. If things don't work out we can go to the National Archives.

May you both have a Merry X-mas and Happy New Year.

Thanks again,

Kurt
